

Edna O. Dove (Snr)

Edna is the Directorate Secretary of the West African Monetary Agency (WAMA) with over 10 years experience in Administrative matters. She has a wealth of experience in organising meetings, conferences and seminars. She is a trained and qualified French teacher, fluent in both French and English, has excellent computer skills and a high sense of initiative.

She holds a Masters in Business Administration (majoring in Operations Management & Procurement) from IPAM, University of Sierra Leone, M.A. in Peace and Development Studies from Njala University, BSc. Hons. in Business Administration (majoring in Human Resources Management) from IPAM – USL. She also holds a Bilingual Secretary's Certificate, Higher Teacher's Certificate - Secondary (French & English) and Diploma in Computer Operations from recognized institutions in Sierra Leone.

Edna works well with people from different races and cultures, is well organised and self motivated, has extensive experience in Bilingual Secretarial duties and excellent interpersonal skills. She has the appropriate attributes and experience to work under pressure and in a team.

Her hobbies are gardening, watching movies, playing games and sports.