

Brief Profile of
MBBAH-OFFOR, SIGISMUND CHIZOBA KSM B.SC, MBA, FCA

Mr Mbbah-Offor is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN). He completed his professional accountancy qualifications in 1992. Before then he had graduated with a B.Sc (Accountancy) in 1989. He equally completed the course work and project writing for the award of Master of Business Administration (MBA) in 1995 and was awarded the certificate in 1997. He has undergone various training courses in Finance and Accounting, Management and Administration, Human Resources Development, Computer Applications, Banking Supervision, etc in various aspects severally in Nigeria and also in France, The Gambia and Sierra Leone. All through his working life up to now, he has been working in international organizations and with people from diverse cultures and can easily relate with them in the given work environment.

Prior to joining the West African Monetary Agency (WAMA), Freetown, Sierra Leone in December, 2003 as Head of Finance and Administration, which position he still maintains, he had worked with another international organisation – the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa Regional Centre for Training in Aerospace Surveys (RECTAS) – in various capacities for almost 14 years and rose to the position of Principal Accountant and was Head of the Finance Department for 10 years. His work at RECTAS included among others production of financial reports for all donor funded projects (EU, Swiss Government, Dutch Government, French Government, GDTA Toulouse France, ITC Netherlands, etc). His diligent competences, consistent high performance and ability to discharge higher levels of responsibility earned him accelerated promotions in his previous employment under different platforms.

In other respect, due to his outstanding selfless service to the society, humanity and the Church, he was nominated and knighted to the worthy and noble order of the Knight of St Mulumba in 2001.